ELEMENTS OF THE OFFENSE

The defendant, Alexander Groys ("Groys"), is charged in Count One of the Information with violating 18 U.S.C. §§ 2252(a)(4)(B) and (b)(2), Possession of Child Pornography. The elements of the offense that the government must prove beyond a reasonable doubt, but that Groys would admit if his plea is accepted, are:

1. The defendant knowingly possessed one or more materials which contained any visual depiction of a minor engaged in sexually explicit conduct;
2. Such visual depiction had been mailed, shipped, or transported in interstate or foreign commerce, by any means, including by computer, or was produced using materials which had been so mailed, shipped, or transported;
3. The production of the visual depiction involved the use of a minor engaging in sexually explicit conduct and the visual depiction was of such conduct; and
4. The defendant knew that the visual depiction involved the use of a minor engaging in sexually explicit conduct.

Respectfully submitted,
